19 Fourth Sunday of Advent.  "Of all women, you are most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb..." Luke 1:39-45	Lord, we ask you to hold closely young people who are struggling with everyday life. Let them see how much they are valued and loved. Amen. 20	21 Today we pray for all those living with dementia. May they know in their hearts God's comforting embrace and continue to realise, as names and memories fade, that they are loved by family, friends, and especially by you. Amen.	As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, let us be mindful that many people will be struggling to put food on their tables. Bless the work of those running food banks and centres; move us to give to them as generously as we can. Amen. 22	23 Lord Jesus, look after the children of the world, protect them and hear their prayers.	24  Lord Jesus, give us courage to live the life you offer us, and let your light shine in our lives.	25 May Jesus light in our hearts, love, hope and peace. With Mary and Joseph we rejoice in the birth of Jesus. May we welcome Christ as they did. Amen.
